A Spanish Restaurant In New Jersey Takes A Poll On The Presidential Election
And Gives Lobsters Away

MOUNTAINSIDE, NJ - May 20, 2004 /Send2Press Newswire/ -- Each patron going to the Spanish Tavern of Mountainside, NJ, will be asked for his/her opinion on the outcome of the November Presidential Election and will be given a chance to receive one of the fifty lobster dinner certificates drawn among respondents every week from June 1st until November. The weekly result of the poll will be publicly displayed outside the restaurant.

"This brings together two passionate facets of people s lives," says the General Manager, Mr. Manuel Garcia, "the fascination for politics and the appetite for lobsters."

To participate in the poll and in the lobster promotion people can visit the restaurant located on Route 22 in Mountainside, NJ. The winners of the fifty weekly lobster certificates will be chosen in a random drawing by the Spanish Tavern from all eligible entries received that week. Each winner will receive a certificate for a lobster dinner at the Spanish Tavern of Mountainside to be redeemed prior to the assigned expiration date.

People may call for details or reservations at (908) 232-2171. No purchase is necessary.
