Local event brings Native youths closer to Olympics

Published: Wednesday, April 23, 2008 10:25 AM CDT

With the sparring behind the scenes rivaling the boxing superstars in the ring, Native Voices Foundation's (NVF) "Future Olympians Day" benefit April 16 in Spooner turned out to be "an uplifting landmark for American Indian youth competing in the London Olympics," according to Olympic skier Suzy Chaffee, NVF's organizer.

Cross-country ski hopeful Mariah Cooper from Lac Courte Oreilles led a ski clinic with Chaffee, sharing tips she learned at the Steamboat Springs, Colo., Olympic Training Center.
