Before Makeup Secrets Revealed, women had few options how to learn to apply makeup. Many women learned from their mothers and looked overdone. Some women learned bit by bit from a year's worth of magazines. And still others learned from their friends. That is all about to change as Star Makeovers brings professional makeup techniques to all women, no matter where they live or whom they know. Makeup Secrets Revealed is the perfect aide when preparing for a wedding, prom, or date.

After an extensive search for makeup artists, Zarin (Zah-reen) Halim was chosen for her stunning portfolio of work on celebrities, models, and everyday women. She carefully crafted an easy-to-learn, step-by-step makeup application that even a man could master. Two regular women were chosen from hundreds of applicants to appear in the video.

A Caucasian model and a Hispanic model present varying complexions, colors, and common makeup issues. Before and after photos show the dramatic beautification this technique can give every woman.
