PASADENA, Calif. /Send2Press Newswire/ – Local restaurant favorite, B-Man's Teriyaki and Burgers (www.bmans.com), will celebrate April Fools Day with a thematic prank. In the spirit of the one-day a year when practical jokes are the norm, B-Man's will trade Teriyaki for Caribbean spices, bringing the tastes of Jamaica to Pasadena on April Fools Day. Owner Byron Takeuchi, will falsely claim a sudden change of management, promoting the new B-MON's Jamaican Cafe with outdoor banners. Inside, customers will be greeted by the sights and sounds of Jamaica, including delicious Jamaican menu items to be served from 10am – 11 pm.

The one-day menu will feature a "Hey Mon Plate" including Grilled Jerk Chicken marinated in the B-MON's own special Jerk Spices, Fried Plantains and Jamaican Rice & Peas. B-Man's employees will join the fun by decorating the restaurant with a Caribbean feel, including palm trees, grass huts and Jamaican Flags. Reggae music will play over the speakers to complete the experience.

Regulars who come in for a taste of the teriyaki bowls and burgers, made with owner Byron Takeuchi's honey recipe teriyaki sauce, need not be disappointed. B-Man's will also be serving its regular menu.

This will mark B-Man's fourth annual April Fool's Day event in Pasadena. It became "B-Man's Cajun Cafe" on April 1 2004, "B-Man's Texas BBQ" on April 1, 2003, and "B-Man's Tacos and Burritos" on April 1, 2002.

B-Man's Teriyaki & Burgers is owned and operated by Byron Takeuchi, long time local restaurateur.
