

Arclinea Boston Named 'Best of the New' by Boston Globe Magazine

BOSTON, MA – (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – In a special issue of The Boston Globe Magazine, celebrating “all that is great and new in our city and our suburbs,” Arclinea Boston (www.arclineaboston.com) has been named “Best of the New.”

In its March 13 issue, the magazine profiled the showroom: “Arclinea, which opened in Boston last February, is more a problem solver than a store. Staffed by architects and architects-in-training, this kitchen showroom features the most ingenious use of space since the skyscraper. Baseboards become drawers. Cabinet doors slide instead of pulling out. And every component is sleek and functional, custom-made in Italy. You control the final design and cost, choosing from thirteen pricing levels of materials. Now you’re cooking.”

As one of Boston Globe Magazine’s selected “favorite new stores, ideas, spaces, faces, hot spots, and restaurants,” Arclinea Boston was also awarded a commemorative plaque. The showroom, at 10 St. James Avenue in Boston’s Design District, recently reopened after a dramatic redesign. Arclinea moved to its Boston location from Cambridge in February 2004.

“In the short time since the Arclinea Boston showroom opened, the response from designers, building professionals, and homeowners has been amazing,” says Philip Guarino, owner of the Arclinea Boston showroom. “To be recognized by The Boston Globe Magazine in this way is a wonderful validation of Arclinea’s very high design and production standards.”

The logo features the text "News from Send2Press® Newswire" in white serif font, centered within a blue rectangular frame. The background of the frame is a dark blue, abstract pattern of overlapping lines and shapes, resembling a network or a stylized globe.
