

How2 Group Adds Two New Sites To Its Quickly Growing Lineup

MIAMI, Fla. – May 2 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – How2 Group International continues to release new web sites that are revolutionizing the way people utilize the Internet. Their two latest, How2BuyFlowers.com and How2Match.com are no exceptions. Just in time for Mother's Day, How2BuyFlowers.com is the perfect place to find everything floral – from fresh flower arrangements to specialty gift baskets. Visitors to the site will experience the level of excellent customer service and tremendous savings that are quickly becoming trademarks of How2 sites. The second new site, How2Match.com, is a matchmaking site that allows visitors to search for “that perfect someone” anywhere in the world.

Since the January launch of their flagship site, How2Vacation.com, the How2 Group has taken the online vacation industry by storm. How2Vacation.com is the only comprehensive vacation web site designed specifically to make booking a complete vacation easy.

Visitors can book cruises, flights, hotel accommodations, transportation, vacation packages, plus all vacation activities such as dining, shows, tours, and more. And thanks to How2Vacation.com's unique business model which puts consumers directly in contact with vacation vendors, the site's users can take advantage of bargain travel fares, and have the option to use their various frequent traveler rewards to pay for flights, hotels, etc. – a first in the online vacation industry.

Keep on the lookout for many new “How2” sites, which are currently in development, such as How2Outlet.com (the world's first virtual, online shopping mall) and How2Game.com (an online casino that will rival the Monte Carlo). Look for these sites later in 2005. For further information, contact Andrew Rothberg, CEO of How2 Group International, at (866) 390-4692.
