

Lobraus CEO to Address Hong Kong International Logistics Conference

CORAL GABLES, Fla. – August 8 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Lobraus Trade Finance Corp (www.Lobraus.net) today announced that their Founder and CEO, Renato Ferreira, will be a key speaker at the Hong Kong International Logistics Conference being held at the Convention and Exhibition Center (www.logistics-hk.com) in Hong Kong, September 14-15, 2005.

The conference called “Logistics Hong Kong” is the largest meeting of logistics and international trade professionals in the world. Mr. Ferreira will give his speech “End to End, Linking China to South America,” on the first day of the conference. In his speech, Mr. Ferreira will focus on Lobraus’ contributions to international trade, and discuss their role as the gateway to international trade in Asia and South America.

Mr. Ferreira will explain how Lobraus’ innovative end-to-end system, which handles everything from Trade Finance to the acquisition of merchandise and even transportation, is the best trade solution available for Chinese entrepreneurs interested in establishing an import/export relationship with South America. Renato will also explain the exclusive advantages of Lobraus Free Port and how the Free Port in Montevideo, where Lobraus has its own bounded warehouse, can be used as an entrance canal to South America.

Lobraus is the only company that offers complete Trade Finance in addition to a full roster of logistical management services. With an expertise born from their many years of experience, Lobraus has developed strong strategic alliances with big logistics operators and finance agents, and is able to pass the benefit of these long standing relationships along to its customers, providing lower costs and quicker delivery.

Lobraus believes in the rich potential of both China and South America, and is doing its best to increase business between these two under-explored economies. It is this entrepreneurial spirit that has resulted in Lobraus enormous success worldwide. The invitation to be a speaker at this prestigious conference shows that the international trade and logistics community has placed its trust in Lobraus’ reliable service record they have since 1987. Step by step, Renato has built stability and opened continents with professionalism and determination. With hard work Lobraus is determined to become the largest foreign trade finance corporation in the world.
