

Controversial Binladin Family Website Goes up for Charity Auction

LOS ANGELES, Calif. – Oct. 7 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – shrimpo LLC is announcing for auction the domain name: saudi-binladin-group.com and associated Binladin domain names, once owned by Osama Binladin's family. These domain names, and their corresponding emails, were legally secured via a unique technology developed by Christopher Curry, Principal of shrimpo LLC, on September 11, 2001. The attack against the Twin Towers and the events that ensued has been linked to Osama Binladin. It is coincidental that on that very day, Binladin's family website and all their emails and the domain name also expired on September 11, 2001.

shrimpo LLC is offering the sale of these domain names in an effort to stay true to its goals of creating peace around the globe. shrimpo LLC feels there is no better way to help others than through turning its back on terror and help the victims of man-made and environmental disasters, such as Hurricane Katrina.

This domain name will be up for auction at <http://www.saudi-binladin-group.com/auction/> shrimpo LLC will contribute 60 percent of all monies received by the auction sale to the following charities: 56 cents of every dollar to the American Red Cross; 4 cents of every dollar to C'amai, an environmental awareness group focusing on global environmental changes.

The message at shrimpo LLC is one of promoting peace on Earth, by reaching out and helping each other – rather than perpetuating human injustice and environmental destruction. Christopher Curry remarks, “We wish to take this opportunity to bring our dreams of global peace to life by giving support to these organizations. Therefore, we have made the following decision to provide an opportunity to a special individual to own a piece of United States history.”

This is a unique opportunity to own an unparalleled and controversial piece of United States history, as well as a mysterious technological piece of manifestation as it relates to the most violent attack against the United States. You can not only own a part of history, but you can be a part of that history. The new owner may possess this exciting piece of U.S. history and get an insider’s view into some of these coincidental actions and events.

SHRIMPO LLC, <http://www.shrimpo.com>, is an innovative consultancy group, based in Los Angeles, focused on streamlining communications among humans and technology.
