The program is available for beginning students in GROUP instruction and for intermediate/advanced students in private instruction. This is an exciting novel outreach concept, making the unique teaching methods of Sdoia-Satz Music Institute available to students who live too far from the school location to participate in the regular programs or who prefer online instruction.

For many years, SD0IA-SATZ MUSIC INSTITUTE has been a trend-setting, edgy private school with a reputation for the highest standards of musical excellence. The school offers music instruction in most instruments and voice for career, hobby or therapy for adults and children. They make learning music a fun experience for everyone, and their unique teaching methods get results rapidly. At The Husky Gang Music School, bringing out the best in students is the basis of their teaching philosophy. All programs are designed to motivate students. They teach HOW to learn faster and easier and have more fun doing it. The whole concept of music learning becomes a positive experience for students and teachers as well.

The Husky Gang School has been featured in stories on CNN, Headline News, Eyewitness News, ABC TV, FOX, WBZL, Univision and Miami Herald and Knight Ridder newspapers nationwide. The Husky Gang books and CD's are published by Warner Bros. Publications.

In addition to the new Interactive OnLine Program, Sdoia-Satz Music Institute continues to offer a complete range of instruction in the home or at the school, weekdays/weekends. Their programs include: the Husky Gang Project, for students 2 to 8); Introduction to Music (for students under 2); Music Instruction as Physical and Emotional Therapy; Teacher Training/Certification and a full range of programs for adults and children.
