“The support I receive from America's Vacation Center is unparalleled in the industry,” Kier said. “Their Live Leads(TM) and cutting-edge technology help me fulfill my desire to bring families together and give them their dream vacations.”

Selling her first cruise with America's Vacation Center in December, Kier started during what is considered to be one of the slowest periods of the year. On the eve of what the cruise industry calls “wave season,” Kier managed to generate more than $20,000 in commissions in less than 30 days.

“Alisha's astounding success in the ‘slow’ season is a perfect example that a skilled travel agent working with the right host agency can excel at any time, from anywhere,” commented Brad Anderson, co-president of America's Vacation Center. “We're happy to provide travel professionals like Alisha the support they need to succeed, seven days a week.” America's Vacation Center has been an award winning member of the American Express Representative

Travel Network for nearly 20 years.

Kier is among the fast-growing network of professional travel agents across North America working with America's Vacation Center. Harnessing the power of the Internet and their own proprietary software, America's Vacation Center provides travel agents the technology and support they need to be successful, no matter where the agents live.

Based in North Carolina, Kier has dramatically increased her sales by receiving Live Leads(TM) from America's Vacation Center. Using their exclusive Agent Power(TM) software, America's Vacation Center transfers live, incoming customer requests over the phone and via the Internet to Kier and other agents across North America.

Kier started her career as a travel agent in 2000, working for one of the largest travel agencies in the country. In 2004, Kier decided to go into business for herself working as a home-based travel agent with the help of a host agency. After five years of selling travel, Kier signed with America's Vacation Center and within a few weeks received her first commission check for more than $1,400. "I'm collecting larger commissions, in less time, and without any of the hassle I'd become accustomed to," remarked Kier. "All host agencies are not the same!"

Customers looking to book their next vacation with Ms. Kier can contact her toll-free at (800) 393-1581.
