

OnlineBootyCall Reaches the One Million Member Mark with Only a Single Marriage

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – Aug. 3 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – The dating Web site, OnlineBootyCall.com, a division of Mobeze, Inc., is proud to announce that they have received only one confirmed report of marriage since their Web site's inception three years ago.

“Reaching the one million member mark with only a single reported marriage is a tremendous accomplishment,” Moses Brown, Founder and CEO said.

While most dating sites focus on lengthy profiles and complex matching systems, OnlineBootyCall.com prefers a simpler approach; the sign-up process can be accomplished in less than one minute.

“We don't ask for your life story because we don't care,” Brown said. “We think online dating should be easy and fun and not a lot of work. We want members to party and have fun. Our motto is: ‘Finding the pieces without the puzzle.’”

OnlineBootyCall.com makes over 30,000 connections each day; that equals one marriage per 32,850,000 booty-call connections.

“Nobody else can boast that kind of success,” Brown said.

Every OnlineBootyCall.com member is required to post at least one personal photo. According to Brown, it all starts with the initial physical attraction.

“Call it superficial if you want, but that's our approach and it's working for our members,” Brown explained. “If we were less superficial, we would probably have more marriages and we certainly don't want to go there!”

The OnlineBootyCall.com membership base has grown through a very generous referral system. To date, OnlineBootyCall.com has given out over $100,000 in cash prizes to members.

“Our members like the site so much they tell all their friends about it, so we reward them for it,” Brown said. “Every member who refers at least five people during the course of one month is placed in a random drawing for $1,000; five winners are picked each month and no purchase is necessary.”

OnlineBootyCall.com is a San Diego-based online dating community that was founded in May 2003. This popular Internet dating destination features over 1,000,000 members throughout the U.S. and Canada. It is the first dating Web site to use a patented “Booty Call Ten Commandments” system to guide members towards success. The first commandment is “Thou shall get out before the sun rises.”
