Bluetooth Technology is already installed in most mobile phones, printers, keyboards and PC's. These items will no doubt be part of many holiday purchases and Bluetooth wants the viewers of Designing Spaces to make the most of integrating these devices to maximize the convenience and experience.

"There are many questions on people's minds concerning Bluetooth such as how to set it up, proper purchasing tips, and will it work with future products," says Mike Foley, Executive Director of Bluetooth SIG. "My aim is to illuminate the convenience and ease of use of Bluetooth Technology.”
