

QuickKutz Inventor Natasha Hixon featured on TV Show: Designing Spaces Special Holiday Edition

Quorum Productions' Hit TV Show Designing Spaces 'Special Holiday Edition' Shows Viewers How to Make Holiday Memories by Scrapbooking

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla. – Dec. 22 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Wondering how you can catch the Scrapbooking wave? Then you shouldn't miss the special episode of "Designing Spaces for the Holidays." The hit Quorum Productions television program will feature Natasha Hixon, a scrapbooker who invented a tool aimed at making the popular craft easier and more fun.

Send2Press® Newswire

"Capturing the stories, photos and memories of the holiday season is one of the most important things you can do for yourself, your family and your friends," says Hixon. "And, it's easy! With a few simple techniques you can create memorable scrapbook pages and projects that capture the essence of your holiday activities for a lifetime of memories and enjoyment."

Hixon invented the QuickKutz Personal Die-Cutting System with her husband in 2001. QuickKutz is a portable, easy to use die-cutting system that allows individuals to create stylish die cuts for scrapbooking and more.
