

Onlyinboards.com Allows Wakeboard and Ski Boat Buyers and Sellers to Surf the Waves Rather than the Web

DAVENPORT, Iowa – Jan. 9 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Are you buying or selling a ski or wakeboard boat, but lacking the time to surf the Web? Onlyinboards.com eliminates the need for buyers and sellers to search multiple sites by compiling all listings on one user-friendly Web site.

Over 1,000 updated listings can be found daily. Brands such as Malibu, Mastercraft, Correct Craft, Tige, and an array of other ski boat brands can be found on Onlyinboards.com.

“I designed the Web site out of need,” Ian Brown, founder of Onlyinboards.com, said. “I was recently searching for a used wakeboard boat and was bouncing from one site to the next constantly searching for new listings; it was very inconvenient. After some research, I was able to design a site that offered one-stop-shopping for wakeboard and ski boat enthusiasts.”

In addition to classified ads, Onlyinboards.com also provides useful and helpful information on topics such as: boat trailers; boat loans; boat accessories; boat storage; boat insurance, boat transportation; tips for buying and selling a boat, and more.

Onlyinboards.com uses proprietary technology from Vast.com to pull listings from major classified sites such as eBay, Craigslist, Boattrader, and Boats.com, and lists them all “under one roof.” It eliminates the need to sift through non-relevant boat listings to find the appropriate competition ski or wakeboard boat.

“For example,” Brown said, “if a buyer had to search listings by location on Craigslist, this could take an inordinate amount of time. With Onlyinboards.com, all the person has to do is enter information such as the make and desired amount to spend and they can search by state or all states at one time. There is also a key-word search feature that is available.”

For sellers, the process is as easy as 1-2-3. Click the “list your boat” icon in the top menu, and simply follow the instructions. The boat will be listed for 180 days or until it sells. Onlyinboards.com currently offers two levels of listings – free listings and premium or featured listings that require payment. Sellers are assured that Onlyinboards.com generates a high level of qualified visitors due to the targeted nature of the site.

Onlyinboards.com is operated by Browntown, Inc. which also manages OnlyLakeHomes.com, WakeReviews.com and FindaPull.com. (All of these sites are currently in development.)
