“HireSuite’s Recruitment Process Outsourcing (RPO) and Integrated Recruitment Technologies enable organizations to cost effectively streamline their recruitment process, increase their ability to attract the best talent and reduce all time frames by outsourcing the process, not the people,” explains Rick Whitley, Vice President of HireSuite.

Coordinating producer John Sasson added, “When researching the latest developments in Recruitment Management Services and Technologies, HireSuite consistently came up as being in touch with the most current advancements in this area. They were a natural to appear on this edition of 21st Century Business.”

About HireSuite(R)

HireSuite is a unique blend of cutting edge technology and outsourced recruiting services for corporate and institutional clients.

In today’s market, Human Resources Departments are tasked with increasing productivity, streamlining processes, attracting tomorrow’s workforce and reducing cost-to-hire without affecting long term budget or reporting. Without further investment, this is effectively achieved by using existing budget categories and partnering with HireSuite.

HireSuite offers an all encompassing product / service that includes:

- * Requisition to On-Boarding
- * Permanent, Contract, Temporary, Interim and Per Diem workflows in one system
- * Electronic Job Postings
- * Automated Resume Uploading
- * Resume Sorting and Matching
- * One command searches to Premium and over 4,000 niche industry job boards for passive candidates
- * Resume Mining and Spidering
- * Recruitment Management System (RMS)
- * Integrated Vendor Management
- * Applicant Tracking System (ATS)
- * Job Board and Career Center Development
- * Search Engine Optimization (SEO)

By using existing advertising, technology, contract, and temporary budgets, a client is able to retain HireSuite to off-load a percentage or all of the recruitment process into a seamless Recruitment Management System.

All services are offered “a la carte,” meaning a client may select as much or as little assistance for each position they believe necessary in a given month, as HireSuite believes a client needs flexibility in an ever changing market.
