

A Journey from Berlin to Los Angeles: UTE LEMPER in Concert, March 14, 2007 at 8 PM, UCLA Royce Hall

LOS ANGELES, Calif. – Feb. 28 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Celebrating 40th Anniversary The LOS ANGELES-BERLIN SISTER CITY. Personifying the cabaret genre, Ute Lemper (www.UteLEMPER.com) is known for her moody interpretations of songbook standards, laced with witty asides and knowing looks, weaving an atmosphere that draws in audiences like few other performers today.

Send2Press Newswire

On the occasion of the 40th Anniversary of the sister city partnership between Los Angeles and Berlin, the sultry cabaret singer and musical star will appear in an exclusive engagement at Royce Hall taking the audience on a musical journey from Berlin to Los Angeles presenting a repertoire of Berlin cabaret songs, Marlene Dietrich favorites and music by Kurt Weill, Walter Jurman, Irving Berlin and Oscar Hammerstein II.

Tickets: $57., $47., $27. ($3. handling fee)

UCLA Central Ticket Office: (310) 825-2101 E-mail: tickets@uclalive.org

March 14, 2007 at 8 PM

Location: UCLA Royce Hall, 340 Royce Drive, Los Angeles, CA 90095 (enter from Sunset Blvd.)

Text provided by news source.

News issued by: Los Angeles-Berlin Sister City Committee

#

Original Story ID: (2556) :: 2007-02-0228-005

Original Keywords: Los Angeles-Berlin Sister City Committee, Ute Lemper, cabaret genre, concert, UCLA Royce Hall Los Angeles-Berlin Sister City Committee