

National Property Tax Consulting Firm Opens Office in Houston

ST. CHARLES, Ill. – Mar. 5 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Chicago-based property tax consulting firm Advantax(R) announced today the opening of their new South Central region office in Houston. David LeVan, President of Advantax, said that “The new office will provide a location to better serve Advantax clients based in Houston, the south central region and around the country.”

Send2Press® Newswire

Headed by Advantax’s new National Director, Sam Kinslow, the Houston office is the seventh regional office opened by Advantax to serve their clientele nationwide.

About Advantax Group LLC

Advantax Group, LLC is the only property tax consulting firm to offer comprehensive services across all 50 states. Services include personal property reverse audits, real property consulting, compliance outsourcing, software solutions, litigation support, and valuation services.

Advantax is headquartered in St. Charles, Illinois with offices in Atlanta, Chicago, Dallas, Fort Myers, Indianapolis, Houston and San Diego.

Advantax Group, LLC, offers more than low-risk solutions for tax challenges.

Adds LeVan, "So whether you need to recoup past tax overpayments, minimize future tax liabilities, or handle tax compliance, our goal is to provide unrivaled property tax solutions that will impact your personal and professional success. We will strive to exceed your expectations in everything we do."

More information: www.advantax.com.

Text provided by the news source.

News issued by: Advantax Group LLC

#

Original Story ID: (2567) :: 2007-0305-004_Advantax

Original Keywords: Advantax Group LLC, property tax consulting firm, David LeVan, Houston office, personal property reverse audits, real property consulting, compliance outsourcing, software solutions, litigation support, and valuation services, Sam Kinslow Advantax Group LLC