

World Peace through Youth Sports – Dubai Attending WYBT 2007 in Hawaii

KAILUA-KONA, Hawaii – Apr. 18 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – The 9th Annual Spalding World Youth Basketball Tournament (www.wybt.com), being held in Kailua-Kona, Hawaii, July 24th – July 29th, 2007, is proud to announce that even the Middle East will be represented. The American School of Dubai will be participating this summer. Along with teams from New Zealand, Canada, Guam, Native Hawaiian, Native American Indian, and teams from all over the mainland U.S.

U.S. Senator and Presidential candidate Barack Obama (obama.senate.gov) has been invited to speak about world peace at this international event.

The tournament will have boys and girls teams from ages 11 – 18. What a great opportunity for cultural exchange with all these great teams, and to create peace and understanding through youth sports.

The tournament has had a prestigious amount of alumni including 2 of the past 1st picks of the NBA draft, Andrew Bogut of Australia, Dwight Howard, and 7 other NBA players.

For more information regarding the tournament please see their website at www.wybt.com, email is wybt@hawaii.rr.com, or contact Christy Gladstone or Scott Gladstone founder, and NBA Hall of Famer, Bill Walton co-founder at 808.329.0860.

Text provided by the news source, World Youth Basketball Tournament.

News issued by: World Youth Basketball Tournament

#

Original Story ID: (2754) :: 2007-04-0418-010

Original Keywords: World Youth Basketball Tournament, WYBT, Christy Gladstone or Scott Gladstone, create peace and understanding through youth sports, The American School of Dubai, 9th Annual Spalding World Youth Basketball Tournament, native teams, Presidential candidate Barack Obama, Barock World Youth Basketball Tournament