

Home Improvement Site All Around the Home's Magical New Partnership

LOS ANGELES, Calif. – June 21 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Customer-based home improvement site All Around the Home has officially become a staple for Southern California internet bound homeowners. Magic Builders is one of many Los Angeles County contractors who have signed with AATH since the beginning of 2007. Homeowners in the LA County area are sure to be able to find quality contractors for all of their home improvement needs.

Founded and owned by Rani Hafner, Magic Builders is a relatively new company in the Los Angeles area. By looking at their amazing craftsmanship, and with customer service going above and beyond, it is easy to think these guys have been serving Southern California for decades. Magic Builders is undoubtedly playing their cards right by choosing to advertise online.

All Around the Home (AATH) gives homeowners the opportunity to compare various contractors in their area for all of their home improvement needs. Personal profiles are provided for each professional, which include: company information, pictures of past work, client testimonials, and an option to request a free estimate. AATH gives homeowners all the necessary information to make the best choice on the contractor just right for their next project.

Homeowners can either put off their next home improvement projects because of the stress and headaches normally associated with finding a contractor or turn to online resource All Around the Home to find the ideal professional. Together, AATH and Magic Builders are sure to set a new bar for contractor customer service. Southern California residents, be sure to check out a home improvement category such as kitchen remodeling in Los Angeles.

The page profiles quality contractors such as Magic Builder – the quickly growing, do-everything, personal contractor for just about anything – whom homeowners can contact for a free estimate.

Summary: Los Angeles-based Magic Builders specializing in home improvements such as kitchen remodeling joins All Around the Home, a national home improvement contractor directory. Homeowners who visit All Around the Home can request a free estimate from Magic Builders and from other contractors all across the U.S.

More information:

allaroundthehome.com/remodeling/kitchen/ca/losangeles/

News issued by: All Around the Home

#

Original Story ID: (2971) :: 2007-06-0621-005

Original Keywords: All Around the Home, Magic Builders home improvements, Rani Hafner, allaroundthehome.com, Los Angeles County contractors All Around the Home