Stephens said that another primary customer for the gift baskets will be Philadelphians living in other parts of the country "hoping to savor something special from home."

Bookbinders Soups and Bisques represent a brand rich in tradition, with recipes based on the original favorites established by Samuel Bookbinder in Philadelphia, 1865. Many of these "favorites" will be included in the Gift Basket.

Each Gift Basket will contain a can of Bookbinders Lobster Bisque, New England Clam Chowder, Seafood Pepper Pot, White Clam Sauce, Seafood Breadcrumbs, Studdabubba's Old World Caramel Corn, and the stew that started it all, Bookie's world-famous Snapper Soup.

Each basket will also be shipped with a full-sized, four-color voucher for a free glass of wine at the Old Original Bookbinders restaurant in Philadelphia.

For more information, as well as other items available for purchase on-line, consumers are urged to visit the website at www.stephensoriginal.com.
