

Local CEO Appointed to Orange County Business Ethics Council

Conference on Business & Ethics

SANTA FE SPRINGS, Calif., April 3 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – In recognition to his dedication to business ethics, Phillip (Phil) M. Ramos, Jr., CEO of Philatron International, Inc, was appointed to the Business Ethics Panel of the upcoming 6th Annual Orange Catholic Foundation Conference on Business and Ethics.

Send2Press® Newswire

The Conference on Business Ethics is to be held on April 24th, 2008 from 7:45 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. at the Doubletree Hotel, 201 E. MacArthur Blvd, Santa Ana, CA. This conference is to learn more about ethical principals and moral dilemmas that can arise in the business environment.

The proceeds for this conference are to support the future of our children education as they develop into the future business and civic leaders of our community. All business who wants to promote ethics in their business are welcomed to attend this event. If unable to attend any contribution is well appreciated.

The Impact of Business & Ethics

In today's world, bringing Business and Ethics together is important. Keynote speakers will be giving talks to all Orange County Business who signed up for the 6th Annual Orange Catholic Foundation – Conference on Business & Ethics – KEEPING THE EDUCATION OF CATHOLIC EDUCATION ALIVE.” Keynote speakers include: Dr. Milton Gordon, President of California State University, Fullerton – Hugh Hewitt, Radio Talk Show Host and Professor of Law at Chapman University School of Law – Mike Miller, Director of Programs, Acton Institute. For more information regarding this program, please contact Angelita Ramos, Director of Marketing, Philatron International, 562-802-2570 ext 227.

Send2Press® Newswire

Philatron International

Philatron is not named after Phil. “Phil” means love in Latin. Electricity is the traveling of electron. Philatron means love of the electron. Philatron International, Inc. is a prime USA Manufacturer of Electrical Wire and Cable. Thirty-Four years ago and with less than $200.00, Phil founded Philatron International. Currently, with over 100,000 square feet of facilities and 100 employees, Philatron has grown to one of the largest electrical wire and cable manufacturers in Southern California.

Phil believes in the principals of servant leadership and coaches his managers along the same path. Phil is honored to be named to the Business Ethics Panel. The nature of this topic is very close to him, being a business owner who not only enforces but also practices ethics and integrity to his own management team at Philatron. All Philatron International employees are extremely proud and honored to learn that their Founder was appointed to a panel position with such high regard.

More information: www.philatron.com.

News issued by: Philatron International, Inc

Send2Press® Newswire

Original Image: https://www.send2press.com/wire/images/08-0403-PhilRamos_72dpi.jpg

#

Original Story ID: (3827) :: 2008-04-0403-005

Original Keywords: Philatron International, Inc, 6th Annual Orange Catholic Foundation – Conference on Business and Ethics, USA Manufacturer of Electrical Wire and Cable, CEO Phillip M. Ramos, Jr Philatron International, Inc