This San Francisco singles party features: 1) Panoramic views of the Bay, 2) an optional mixer game with prizes to make it easy to meet new people, 3) great dance music from the 70's, 80's, and 90's to current hits, 4) free parking, 5) free hors d'oeuvres, 5) an optional salsa dance lesson, 6) a no host bar.

People of all ages are welcome. The typical crowd is single professionals, age 25 and up with many in their 30's, 40's, and 50's.

"The optional salsa dance lesson gets the party going," said Phil Seyer, director of Professionals Guild, "and because we change partners, singles can connect and make new friends easily."

Besides salsa lessons at parties, Professionals Guild promotes the Web's only

Latin Dance School: www.LoveMusicLoveDance.com/latin.

About 250 to 300 singles are expected to attend the GGYC singles party. The cover at the door is $25. Professionals Guild hosts huge monthly parties as well as smaller gatherings. Other upcoming Bay Area singles parties include:
