

34th Annual Country Day Fair for Prince of Peace – Costa Mesa

COSTA MESA, Calif., April 15 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – For the thirty-fourth consecutive year Prince of Peace School announces a great day of family fun! The Annual Country Day Fair is happening Saturday, April 19th, 10 a.m. – 3 p.m. in Costa Mesa. Prince of Peace Church and School have been a community anchor in the Mesa Verde community of Costa Mesa for over 40 years. Prince of Peace looks forward to serving up fun for the whole family at this event.

There's something for everyone: carnival rides, games and prizes, an international food fair, karate demonstration, puppet show, silent auction, live music and more. Admission is free, attraction tickets are available for purchase the day of the fair.

Anyone who enjoys good, wholesome fun is encouraged to head on over to Prince of Peace School, 2987 Mesa Verde Drive East, Costa Mesa (Corner of Baker and Mesa Verde)!

Please see www.popcostamesa.com for more information.

About Prince of Peace

Prince of Peace was established in the early days of Orange County and has been serving our community ever since. Prince of Peace School offers safe, Christian based Pre- and Elementary-school education. Our staff is committed to providing the best care and education for your children.

Prince of Peace church services begin every Sunday at 10:00 a.m. We have fully licensed childcare during our Sunday school and church services. Our Youth Programs on Wednesday Night (6:00 p.m. for Dinner) consist of K-3 and 4th – 6th. We invite you to visit us any Sunday or weekday during office hours.

News issued by: Prince of Peace Church and School

Send2Press® Newswire

Original Image: https://www.send2press.com/wire/images/08-0101-Send2Press_72dpi.jpg

#

Original Story ID: (3864) :: 2008-04-0415-002

Original Keywords: Prince of Peace Church and School, Annual Country Day Fair Orange County Prince of Peace Church and School