The hotline is available Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

From the market and economic downturn to new regulations regarding fee disclosures, an increasing number of employers are finding that independent, unbiased reviews are required. The Casconi Group Retirement Plan Hotline can help avoid conflicts of interest while gaining quality guidance.

“Recent events have dramatized the importance of professional services to Retirement Plan Sponsors and any person who has responsibility for decision making or operation of a qualified retirement plan. The uninformed, or unwary, are at real risk if they are not carefully managing fiduciary risk,” said Chris Casconi, registered advisor at Casconi Group.

“Navigating the maze of rules and responsibilities for retirement plans demands unbiased, experienced answers. The Casconi Retirement Plan Hotline can help answer detailed questions,” Casconi elaborated.

In addition to the wide spectrum of the finest investment, savings, and executive compensation solutions available, Casconi Group provides a broad range of innovative programs and services, tailored to protect employees and employers. Their expert advisors work to determine where risk, opportunity and security interconnect.
