

Donald Toresco Announces Autoland Finishes 2008 on Top Despite Hard Economic Conditions

SPRINGFIELD, N.J., Dec. 30 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Donald Teresco, President and CEO of DMT Enterprises, and his dedicated staff are consistently willing to go the extra mile for their customers. Their superior customer service has shown to pay off in 2008. Autoland continues to sell more vehicles than any other Toyota dealer in their zone, despite hard economic times.

Autoland has also recently announced the opening of their brand new one acre indoor showroom. This new climate-controlled showroom facility holds over one hundred new vehicles for customers to browse.

Donald Toresco and his wife Robin Toresco extend their invitation for those shopping for a new vehicle to visit the new showroom and view the largest selection of new and used vehicles in New Jersey and to experience their extraordinary customer service.

About Autoland

In the early 1980's, Donald Toresco purchased Autoland's current location – 26 acres of land on Route 22 East in Springfield, New Jersey and began construction of the world's first automall. Mr. Toresco had successfully created a single location where customers could shop in a comfortable environment. Autoland is now New Jersey's largest full service dealer, offering Toyota, Scion, Chrysler, Dodge, Jeep. Autoland has been a family business since 1968 and believes customer service is number one before, during, and after the sale. Autoland offers service to all nationalities and have employees that speak Spanish, Polish, Korean, French, Chinese, Arabic, Nigerian, Italian, Russian, Portuguese, Guyanese, Pilipino, and Hindi. Not only is their new showroom the largest in the area, they also have over one hundred service bays. Come see how Autoland can use its 60+ years of automotive knowledge and expertise to provide you with an exceptional car buying experience.
