

EASEUS Saves Yourself from Data Loss Disaster

NEW YORK, N.Y., March 20 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Ever emptied the Recycle Bin only to realize that you just deleted something you meant to keep? Ever formatted your D: drive by mistake instead of E:? Ever suffered from a malware which led to your computer crash? Have you ever been inaccessible to your drive and it popped up “Disk not formatted, do you want to format now?” Data Recovery Wizard will save your data out of all these disasters.

EASEUS Software – the innovative, dedicated data recovery software provider – offers insight into data loss disaster, and provides affordable data recovery software for computer users to rescue their precious data from disaster just by simple mouse-clicks.

Data Recovery Wizard, only $69.95 for a single-user license, will save computer users from all data loss disasters under Windows 2000/XP/2003/VISTA. With its powerful search function, Data Recovery Wizard will work its miracles and prevent your life from going into a downward spiral when the data disaster strikes. It recovers deleted files emptied from the Recycle Bin, or rescues data from a lost or damaged partition, formatted hard drive, software crash, virus infection, unexpected shutdown, or other unknown reasons.

Data Recovery Wizard is highly recommended by its users: “I’ve downloaded about 3 or 4 software recovery tools. Yours by far was the easiest to use and the fastest to recover.”

The type of file system doesn’t really matter as Data Recovery Wizard recovers from all of them: FAT12, FAT16, FAT32, and NTFS/NTFS5, and that’s just for starters! The program supports IDE/ATA, SATA, SCSI, USB, Firewire (IEEE1394) hard disk and other media, such as floppy disk, USB flash drive, or digital camera. All hardware RAID is supported.

Data Recovery Wizard Professional delivers all the features of Data Recovery Wizard, while adding some advanced data recovery capabilities: recovery from dynamic disk and EXT2 and EXT3.
