

GerrityStone Announces Management Team Promotions

WOBURN, Mass., March 31 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Tracy Streckenbach, CEO of GerrityStone, New England's premier interior and exterior custom stonework specialist, is pleased to announce two key promotions to their management team: Dawn Carroll, marketing director, architectural division and Adam Graber, director of new business development.

Send2Press® Newswire

Dawn Carroll has spent the past 11 years as a highly regarded stone design industry consultant, she joined GerrityStone last year and was recently promoted to marketing director, architectural division where she works with some of the area's most prestigious builders, interior designers and architects, consulting on stone design and fabrication. Dawn is a member of the Marble Institute of America (MIA), National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI), and the Builder's Association of Greater Boston (BAGB).

She is the author of several local and regional articles and is a frequent speaker on panels with design discussions for industry events. She will be one of the featured presenters at the upcoming Residential Design and Construction show which will be held April 1st and 2nd at the World Trade Center in Boston.

Adam Graber has several years experience working within GerrityStone, initially as a templater and later moving into sales where he was responsible for managing residential and commercial stone installations ranging from 40 to 4,000 square feet.
