

PigskinKids.com Has Passion for Preparing Kids to Play Football

EL DORADO HILLS, Calif., Aug. 27 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – PigskinKids.com is an online meeting place for youth football fans, coaches and players. This new Web site sets a new standard for instructional youth football and raises the bar for quality online video content through its free, shared youth football highlight feature.

PigskinKids.com is a youth football player-only Web site. Visitors to the site will be privy to professional coaching techniques and player tips. Younger players and those new to the game will get excited about football as they watch, firsthand, samples of Coach Mark Watson teaching youth players winning football skills and techniques.

In a series of quality football video DVDs, Coach Watson prepares and runs through drills that are designed to promote competitive football play in the younger set.

This exciting video series showcases the major positions that make up the game of football – quarterback, running back, tight end, wide receiver, offensive line, defensive line, defensive back, linebacker and kicker.

Samples of each video are available for viewing at: www.PigskinKids.com.

At PigskinKids.com, people can use the shared highlights' feature to upload their favorite football video highlight so family, friends and teammates can view their action on the field.

Additional free highlights can be uploaded with the purchase of any video in the DVD series or can be individually purchased for $0.99.

Visitors to the site can be assured that all videos are screened before being placed on the live Web site to ensure the privacy of the player and appropriate content.

Parents also have the option of restricting access and giving rights to people who they have personally approved to view the highlight.

The video streaming of the highlight allows full-screen viewing with minimal quality loss and gives every youth football player in the nation a chance to upload their highlight for free. It presents the perfect opportunity for youth to improve and share their competitive football skills.

For more information, visit: www.PigskinKids.com.

News issued by: PigskinKids

Send2Press® Newswire

Original Image: https://www.send2press.com/wire/images/09-0827-pskids_72dpi.jpg

#

Original Story ID: (5280) :: 2009-08-0827-002

Original Keywords: PigskinKids, youth football player-only Web site, video series showcases the major positions that make up the game of football, Coach Mark Watson teaching youth players winning football skills and techniques, Sacramento, pig skin kids videos PigskinKids