

TTI Finalist for Industry Awards

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Jan. 19 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – TeleManagement Technologies, Inc. (TTI), a leading provider and innovator of telecom software products and solutions, is proud to announce that they have been chosen as a finalist for the 2009 AOTMP Industry Excellence Award for Supplier Advocate of the Year. The AOTMP Industry Excellence Awards were developed to recognize enterprises and industry suppliers committed to telecom management best practices.

“We’re proud to recognize award finalists who are leveraging best practices in fixed and wireless telecom management to drive efficiency in their organizations,” said Tim Lybrook, AOTMP President and CEO. “They represent a commitment to excellence in creating a telecom environment that not only meets financial and operational objectives, but also supports strategic business initiatives.”

Supplier Advocate Award Finalist:

“Being chosen as a finalist for Supplier Advocate of the Year is a true honor,” stated Mark Hearn, President and CEO of TTI. “We are proud that our clients continue to recognize that for over 23 years TTI has been providing not only cutting edge TEM solutions, but exemplary customer support and service as well. It is most gratifying that the award nomination came from our own clients’ recommendations. TTI’s Vision is to provide the most robust and flexible TEM system in the marketplace and to continue to exceed customer expectations.”

Winners will be announced at the TEM 2010 Industry Excellence Awards banquet on February 16, 2010 in Orlando, Florida. For more details on the awards program and conference, or to register to attend, please visit www.tem2010.com.
