

ABC's Bachelor Jake Pavelka Takes Florida RV Rental Firm for a Ride

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., Jan. 26 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Florida RV rental dealer Allstar Coaches was featured on Monday night's episode of ABC's "The Bachelor: On the Wings of Love." Nine gorgeous women, all competing for the love and affection of Bachelor Jake Pavelka piled into the waiting RVs for a road trip up the beautiful California coast. With stopovers at a Santa Ynez vineyard, the dunes of Pismo Beach and the towering redwoods of Big Sur, the scenery was almost intense as the drama was.

Allstar Coaches was chosen because "they had the nicest RV rentals we could find," said Herbert Weatherford, one of the producers of the show. In addition to providing the RVs, Allstar co-owners Rob Tischler and Robert Lemon assisted with planning and logistics and also doubled up as drivers for the show. "Allstar's staff was great and fit in seamlessly with our crew. Their expertise in RV travel and operations were invaluable to this production, and quite frankly we could not have pulled this off without them," added Weatherford.

Television networks and film crews have been taking notice of the RV industry, cashing in on the growing popularity of RVing. RVs not only offer the public all the comforts of home while on the road, but can also serve as mobile production offices in the most remote of locations. Equipped with the latest technology and custom-designed utilizing the finest materials available, these state-of-the-art motorhomes are extremely versatile. Allstar Coaches has the perfect RV rental for virtually any taste or budget.

"We took these coaches to so many great places, but to caravan them over the sand dunes and drive them down the beach was just over the top!" said Tischler. "Now there really are no limits where one can go with an RV," he added.
