

Allstar Coaches Cuts Rates for Florida RV Rentals

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., Feb. 3 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Allstar Coaches, Florida’s leading RV rental dealer announced today that it is reducing rates for Florida RV rentals during the months of February, March and April 2010. In addition Allstar Coaches is offering all-inclusive Florida RV rental specials and reduced delivery fees for Super Bowl XLIV in Miami, Sebring and the upcoming Daytona 2010 Speedweek.

“With Super Bowl now upon us and the Daytona 500 right around the corner, we’re excited to be able to offer customers our lowest rates ever on our Florida RV rentals,” said Rob Tischler, President and CEO of Allstar Coaches.

Allstar Coaches has been fortunate to have become extremely busy since the company was featured on the “road trip” episodes of ABC’s “The Bachelor.” In order to keep up with the high demand from the Miami Super Bowl and upcoming Daytona races, the company moved in additional units from its other locations.

“Since bringing in the extra inventory, we have more coaches available for rental and are able to really cut our prices,” added Tischler. Local delivery and pickup for all Broward and Palm Beach RV renters is also offered at no charge. The company says it has no plans to scrap its competitive price policy. “Allstar Coaches will always meet or beat any price for a comparable RV rental and that will not change,” said Tischler.

RV travel has become extremely popular over the past few years and continues its rapid growth trend. RV rentals offer travelers a luxurious alternative to expensive airline tickets and overpriced hotel rooms allowing adventurers to take control of their vacations, and go pretty much wherever they want. RVing offers the all the comforts and conveniences of home while on the road or in the most remote of locations. With near perfect weather and world class destinations and attractions, it’s no wonder why Florida tops the list with RV enthusiasts.

Allstar Coaches has the perfect RV rental for any taste or budget and offers Florida RV rentals from its Fort Lauderdale and West Palm Beach locations. With additional locations opening this year in Orlando and Tampa Allstar Coaches is poised to become Florida’s largest RV rental dealer. Allstar also has rental locations in California, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Arizona and Nevada and has the ability to deliver a luxury RV to virtually any doorstep in America.
