

Inlanta Mortgage Selects IDS idsDoc Document Preparation Solution

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Feb. 24 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Inlanta Mortgage recently chose International Document Services \(IDS\) to produce closing documents and provide initial disclosure services for its nine-state mortgage banking business. With 25 branches and more than 135 employees in Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Florida, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri and North Dakota, the Waukesha, Wis.-based lender had $550 million in 2009 loan volume.

“Our selection process lead us to IDS because they demonstrated the expertise, accountability, compliance and productivity we require to deliver on the Inlanta Mortgage quality commitment to its customers,” said Inlanta chief operating officer Jean Badciong. “Since our customers include investors as well as borrowers, it is critically important that we bring flawless document sets to closing. We’ve staked our reputation on this.”

“In addition, a critical decision factor was the advances in technology found in IDS and ease of use that allows us to work efficiently and manage the constant demands on our employees’ time,” Badciong added

“Inlanta Mortgage is a great customer for IDS because their organizational values are all about providing the highest grade customer services and business ethics,” said IDS president Curt Doman. “Not only do we share their values, but we welcome our role in upholding them. That’s what keeps us on top of our game as a service provider to the mortgage industry.”
