

Village 1 Hour Cleaners in Laguna Niguel, Calif. Earns International Dry Cleaning Award

2010 Award of Excellence Recognizes Top Quality and Service.

LAGUNA NIGUEL, Calif., May 19 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Village 1 Hour Cleaners (Village1hrcleaner.com) has earned the prestigious Award of Excellence for Quality & Customer Service. This prestigious international award program is administered by the Clothing Care Council, a Washington D.C. based group. Dry cleaners must pass rigorous tests not only in the area of advanced dry cleaning but also in customer service. To date, approximately 140 companies around the world have attained the Award of Excellence.

“Finding a good cleaner who will consistently treat you like a valued customer shouldn’t be a guessing game,” Clothing Care Council spokesperson Bill Fisher said. The 44-year veteran of the cleaning industry noted, “By becoming an Award of Excellence cleaner, Village 1 Hour Cleaners proved there is a difference between quality cleaners and their competition. Now customers know where to find a cleaner who will treat them and their garments properly – every time.”

Jeff An, the owner of Village 1 Hour Cleaners, studied the unique criteria and passed all the rigorous cleaning and customer service evaluations. The Award of Excellence signifies that Village 1 Hour Cleaners successfully removed a complex array of stains, maintains high quality cleaning standards and consistently demonstrates superior quality and customer service. Jeff An states “Our customers deserve the best in quality and service no matter what the economy. That is why the Award of Excellence hangs in our window. It is our commitment to our customers.”
