

'Stars of the Russian Circus' Take the Stage for a New and Unique Experience

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Moscow Circus on Stage rolls in on December 11, 2010 at 3 p.m. at the Wilshire Ebell Theater, TicketsR.com announced today. Tickets are $40 to $60 and can be purchased by visiting www.TicketsR.com. The Moscow Circus on Stage has a new show for both children and adults created by Victor Shulman.

For a quarter-century, impresario Victor Shulman has introduced some of the biggest names in music, dance and theater from the former Soviet Union to audiences around the world.

"Stars of the Russian Circus" is a rich combination of excitement, entertainment and drama that can only be created by some of the greatest circus performers on earth. Many of the critically acclaimed acts are pushing the boundary of human physical ingenuity to its limits.

This show will offer aerial circus acts, amazing clowns, gymnasts, jugglers, contortionist, one of a kind musical instruments, jump roping dogs and so many more of the best acts in the two hundred year history of the Russian circus.

"People should not confuse this with a 'Disney on Ice' or some other circus show," Shulman said. "These are circus performers audiences would find in shows like the 'Cirque du Soleil.' We have found the greatest gymnasts and finest circus acts and put them on stage."

This is not the first time Shulman has put circus acts together. Several years ago, he put together a show, "Russian Circus on Ice," which toured Europe, Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean.

Tickets to the concert are being sold on www.TicketsR.com, a local California based ticketing company with a box office located in Sherman Oaks on Ventura Blvd. TicketsR.com staff has over nine years of on-line ticket sale experience. "We are a customer-oriented company that works hard to maintain accuracy, timeliness, and satisfaction," said company representative, Alex Durmashkin.
