

Infertility Treatment Specialists California IVF Pass Institute of Medical Quality Inspection

DAVIS, Calif., Jan. 7 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – The Northern California infertility treatment specialists at California IVF: Davis Fertility Center, Inc. (www.californiaivf.com) have been awarded a 3 year accreditation by the Institute of Medical Quality (www.imq.org).

IMQ, a San Francisco based non-profit organization dedicated to improving the quality of patient care, recently completed a thorough on-site inspection of the local Sacramento area fertility clinic. During the review, the quality of infertility treatment options provided by its local fertility doctors was reviewed and its facility including the in vitro fertilization (IVF) laboratory was inspected as part of the fertility center's commitment to providing a high-level of patient satisfaction to couples struggling to get pregnant and trying to conceive.

California IVF infertility specialist Dr. Ernest Zeringue says, "I am proud of our IMQ accreditation and hope the quality of care for our patient family continues to improve with each successful pregnancy that is the result of infertility treatments performed at our local fertility clinic."
