

EPIC adds Adam Heher as Vice President in Petaluma – California’s Fastest Growing Insurance Broker Continues Building North Bay Team

PETALUMA, Calif., Jan. 11 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – EPIC (Edgewood Partners Insurance Center), a retail property, casualty and employee benefits insurance brokerage, announces the addition of North Bay business professional Adam Heher in the company’s Petaluma, Calif. office. Heher has deep ties to the North Bay, having lived and worked in the community his entire life.

Heher joins EPIC as vice-president and will be responsible for all aspects of developing and growing a book of business including the acquisition of new clients and the design, placement and management of commercial insurance and risk management programs. He will work closely with EPIC North Bay principals Bill Merget and Mike Ryan as a key member of their growing production team.

“Mike Ryan and I are excited to welcome Adam to the EPIC North Bay team,” said EPIC Principal Bill Merget. “He is an exceptional business person and strong client advocate with a thorough understanding of how to identify and manage a broad range of business risk. Adam is well connected and highly regarded in the local community and is exactly the kind of smart, aggressive, innovative professional we want to further build EPIC around.”

Prior to joining EPIC, Adam spent 15 years building and managing his own business as president and owner of Wingspan Services Corporation (d.b.a. Swisher Hygiene) a commercial hygiene services company with clients across the Bay Area and the Sacramento Valley. Prior to founding Wingspan, Adam spent two years with financial services consultant PricewaterhouseCoopers. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in International Relations from the University of California at Davis and is fluent in Spanish.
