

EPIC Adds Amenda-Ming Chen as Account Executive

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Feb. 8 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – EPIC (Edgewood Partners Insurance Center), a retail property, casualty insurance brokerage and employee benefits consultant, has added Amenda-Ming Chen as an employee benefits Account Executive in its San Francisco office. Amenda brings a strong background in employee benefits consulting including benefit plan design, wellness planning, financial analysis, underwriting and benefit plan valuation. Her experience includes both fully insured and self-funded programs as well as international benefits.

As an account executive at EPIC, Amenda's responsibilities will include providing client program leadership, including overall strategy and design direction. Amenda will also oversee the timeliness and accuracy of all deliverables and client service team management.

"We are building a unique business model centered on innovation, best practices and building relationships with our clients as trusted advisors," said Dana Liedel, Managing Director of EPIC's Employee Benefits Practice. "Amenda is a talented young professional with strong analytical, program and financial management capabilities. We're really happy to have her here to help us build a unique set of capabilities for our Bay Area marketplace."

Prior to joining EPIC, Amenda was most recently a health and benefits associate at Aon Hewitt where she was responsible for project management and client service overseeing a diverse mix of fully insured, self-funded and international accounts.

Amenda holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mathematics from the University of California Los Angeles. In addition, Amenda has earned professional designations as both a Certified Employee Benefits Specialist (CEBS) and Retirement Plans Associate (RPA).
