

DeRosa Mangold Consulting Wins Sage 2010 President's Circle Award

AUSTIN, Texas, March 10 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – DeRosa Mangold Consulting (www.derosamangold.com), a full-service Value Added Reseller of accounting software and a Sage Platinum Partner, was recently recognized with the Sage President's Circle Award for superior performance in fiscal year 2010, which ended September 30.

According to Michael DeRosa, president, 2010 represents the first year his company has achieved the coveted President's Circle status, which distinguishes DeRosa Mangold as one of the top 5 Sage partners nationally in sales of Sage MAS 90, MAS 200 and MAS 500 ERP solutions.

"This prestigious award is another validation of our strategic decision to remain highly focused on selling, implementing and supporting Sage solutions – even during an economic downturn that has tempted other partners into diverting their resources to other products."

In addition to selling and implementing Sage solutions, DeRosa Mangold is a Sage Authorized Training Campus (ATC), its Waco, TX facility being the only ATC in the state. The DeRosa Mangold staff is sanctioned by Sage to provide training and certifications to customers as well as other Sage-authorized resellers, consultants and trainers.

"Our commitment to Sage is deep and absolute, which is critical to companies that value partnering with a stable company with a high degree of Sage expertise," said DeRosa. "The President's Circle award demonstrates that we've been a very effective advocate for Sage as the solution of choice for companies with lean accounting departments and need enhanced control over their financials. And after the sale, our consulting, implementation, training and support infrastructure ensures that these companies fully leverage the capabilities those Sage solutions offer. That message is resonating with our audience in a down economy. They are investing in Sage and in us."
