

DETC Recognizes CalUniversity Alum Dr. Stacy Barnes with The Outstanding Graduate for 2011 Award

LOS ANGELES, Calif., April 13 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – California InterContinental University (CalUniversity), a leading distance-learning educational institution, was proud to be represented by Dr. Stacy Barnes at the 85th Annual Distance Education and Training Council (DETC) Conference last week in Williamsburg, Virginia. Dr. Barnes, an experienced educator and an expert in the use of effective instructional technologies was one of six recipients on hand to be recognized by DETC as an outstanding graduate for 2011. At CalUniversity, Dr. Barnes completed the rigorous Doctorate in Business Administration program in Healthcare Management and Leadership and graduated with “Presidents Merit Award.”

CalUniversity’s healthcare management and leadership program along with its unique delivery methods and mentoring is available to students all over the world. With the healthcare sector expected to grow in the coming years, graduates position themselves for a more promising future and the CalUniversity staff possesses a strong belief in the career advancement potential this degree can bring.

“To be able to achieve goals, which have been beyond my reach previously, is indeed refreshing,” said Dr. Barnes. “The outstanding and superior ‘mentoring’ as a ‘giving back’ approach to learning received at California InterContinental University has been an experience for me.”

“We were excited to have Dr. Stacy Barnes recognized in front of school officials from all the DETC schools,” said CEO and Chairman of CalUniversity Dr. Shaan Kumar. “It’s important that those students that persevere and stay the course are recognized at such important events.”

CalUniversity is nationally accredited by the Distance Education and Training Council (DETC) to offer programs for Bachelor’s, Master’s and Doctoral degrees through an interactive learning curriculum, flexible degree completion and affordable tuition and fees.
