

Recycle Fashionably Expands Sweat Mate Reach for Men, Women and the Planet

DENVER, Colo., May 9, 2011 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Recycle Fashionably announced this week that Bikram Yoga Calgary is its 50th retailer to carry the environmentally friendly, and oh so fashionable Sweat Mate – a reusable, waterproof bag.

“Sweat Mate is a smart product with a great price point – and it’s fun,” says Lyndsay of Bikram Yoga Calgary South. “We constantly try to make our yoga studio more eco-friendly, and Sweat Mate fits that focus perfectly. Our students just love them.”

The Sweat Mate comes in an array of colors and patterns for men and women. For example, Pressed Leaves, Wallflower, and Wildwood are just a few of the inspiring choices offered. Options will vary based on designer fabric availability.

Sizes range from small to large and the reusable bags are designed for just about any activity – indoors or outdoors. Retail prices are: $20, $25, and $30 and Recycle Fashionably welcomes wholesale accounts too.

The exterior of the bags are attractive and fun. Designer cotton fabrics are used for the exterior. The lining is comprised of urethane-coated rip-stop nylon; and the drawstring is a heavy-duty nylon parachute cord.

The Sweat Mate is ideal for any fitness-related activity. It keeps wet and sweaty items from invading the rest of the gym bag. It also makes the perfect companion for moms who need a quick place to stash those last-minute baby messes.

“We’re thankful to reach this milestone in our business,” says Aurora Sisneros, owner Recycle Fashionably. “It’s exciting to see the growing number of people who are doing their part to keep plastic bags out of our landfills by using our reusable bags.”
