

Millennium Administrators, Inc. Has Been Selected by The City of Scranton, Pennsylvania to Provide Benefit Administration for Active Fire and Police

SCHWENKSVILLE, Pa., July 12, 2011 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Millennium Administrators, Inc., a benefits administrator, has signed a contract with the City of Scranton to provide benefit administration services for over 500 city employees. Millennium is providing administrative oversight for the city benefit program, including cost containment initiatives, claim audits and administrative services to enhance cost saving initiatives at the City of Scranton.

“We are very excited about rekindling our relationship with the City of Scranton’s active firefighters and police officers,” said Sara B. Picard, president of Millennium Administrators, and affiliate of Millennium Healthcare Group.

“We have a long standing history with Millennium, and we are looking forward to working collaboratively on controlling healthcare costs,” said Dave Gervasi, President of IAFF Local 60.

“We are confident Millennium will provide the quality service and immediate response our members received during their previous contractual agreement with the City 10 years ago! We are thrilled to have them back!” said Ann Marie Stulgis, President of FOP.
