LAKE FOREST, Calif., July 28, 2011 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Professional Community Management of California, Inc. (PCM), one of the nation's largest managers of resort-style living homeowner associations, has expanded into Southern Nevada. PCM was chosen by eight association boards to professionally manage Pulte Group's Southern Nevada communities in the greater Las Vegas Valley and Mesquite Region that will total nearly 11,000 homes at build-out.

"Some of the most highly-sought after communities in the entire Las Vegas and Mesquite Region have engaged PCM to maintain and build upon the amenities and lifestyle of their neighborhoods," said Donny Disbro, chief executive officer of PCM. For nearly 40 years, PCM has been an award-winning leader and innovator in the homeowner association management industry.

PCM has hired Randy Watkins as vice president of Nevada Management and has recruited former Pulte Group staff to manage the communities.

"We are excited to bring our brand and services that have been so successful in delighting our clients in Southern California to Southern Nevada," added Disbro. "Randy has been a respected leader in the Las Vegas area for years, and not only embraces the best practices in our industry, but also brings the integrity and experience to fuel our company's growth in Nevada. We are thrilled to add him to the PCM team to manage this exciting new division."

As a community management company, PCM serves as an agent to the Association's Board of Directors providing budget guidance, communicating with the Board of Directors and the residents, coordinating projects of interest to the communities, and managing vendors for landscaping and other services.
