

Colonial Reenactors to Celebrate First Annual Santa Clarita Valley Constitution Day

SANTA CLARITA, Calif., Aug. 23, 2011 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – The Santa Clarita Valley Constitution Day Foundation has been diligently working to plan and execute its first big constitution day celebration. It will be held on September 17 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at West Creek Community Park. Admission is free.

It was on September 17, 1787 that the U.S. Constitution was first signed by 39 brave men who changed the course of history.

“This is an event that should be recognized and celebrated,” says Alice Khosravy, founder of the Santa Clarita Valley Constitution Day Foundation. “After talking with other interested citizens, we decided it was time to organize a festival that would serve a dual purpose – education and fun.”

Geared to families with children in kindergarten through eighth grade, this event will take attendees back in time. Festival goers will get to meet their founding fathers and mothers; visit 13 colonial states; experience a reenactment of the signing of the U.S. Constitution; play games and walk through a historical colonial village; and enjoy great speakers, colonial music, food and more.

The participants will breathe new life into the signing of the U.S. Constitution through creative storytelling techniques as they take on the role of delegates and sign their own weathered copies of the U.S. Constitution. And, the Los Angeles Fifes and Drums will set the stage with its patriotic colonial music and historical roots; the group dates back to 1905. These talented musicians play on rope-tensioned drums handcrafted by their members, and Healy Flute Co. Deluxe Model 10-hole B-flat fifes.

And to add to the non-stop action, the Morgan Rifle Company will present a true picture of what it was like during the Revolutionary War – the clothes they wore and the weapons and equipment carried.

“The event is non-political and our goal is to simply provide our community with a fun day in the sun while teaching them a bit about our nation’s history to boot,” explains Khosravy.

To register for this free, family-friendly event, visit: www.scvconstitutionday.org .

News issued by: SCV Constitution Day Foundation

Santa Clarita Valley Constitution Day

September 17, 2011

Reenactments - Colonial Village
Entertainment - Music - Food
Educational Activities
Grades K-8

West Creek Park

REGISTER FOR FREE ADMISSION

Send2Press® Newswire

Original Image: https://send2pressnewswire.com/image/11-0823-scvday_72dpi.jpg

#

Original Story ID: 2011-08-0823-001 (7210) :: 2011-08-0823-001

Original Keywords: Alice Khosravy, Santa Clarita Valley Constitution Day Foundation, SCV, signing of US Constitution, Los Angeles Fifes and Drums, Morgan Rifle Company, Healy Flute Co, event, California news SCV Constitution Day Foundation Santa Clarita California SANTA CLARITA, Calif.

Alternate Headline: First Annual Santa Clarita Valley Constitution Day will feature Colonial Reenactors

NEWS ARCHIVE NOTE: this archival news content, issued by the news source via Send2Press Newswire, was originally located in the Send2Press® 2004-2015 2.0 news platform and has been permanently converted/moved (and redirected) into our 3.0 platform. Also note the story "reads" counter (bottom of page) does not include any data prior to Oct. 30, 2016. This press release was originally published/issued: Tue, 23 Aug 2011 09:59:11 +0000