

Skull Church Heads to Missoula – Monthly Event Hits the Road for Two Days at Wilma Theatre

KALISPELL, Mont., Sept. 8, 2011 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Since its beginnings in summer 2009, Skull Church has delivered killer concerts from popular Christian artists and a clear gospel message to the Flathead Valley. Named for the place of Christ's crucifixion, Skull Hill, the monthly event is regularly held at the Liberty and Strand Theatres in Kalispell. This month, for the first time, the event will be taken on the road for two days to the historic Wilma Theater in Missoula. Fresh Life Church produces Skull Church events.

Taking place Sept. 16 and 17, Skull Church Missoula will feature two highly anticipated bands, Blindsight and Family Force 5, with the cornerstone of the night being a raw and relevant gospel message from Levi Lusko.

"Skull Church has always been a platform to spread the message that the most beautiful thing to ever happen in history occurred in a place of death-God died in our place," says Lusko. "We've broadcast that message through the monthly Skull Church event, on the Web, and radio, now we're amplifying it through the speakers at the Wilma. We'd like to see every one of those 1,067 theatre seats filled with people hearing the gospel."

Skull Church has become an impressive platform for live music, and the Missoula event will be no different. Attendees can expect state of the art audio and visual technology, along with an experience that rivals most mainstream concerts, but the focus isn't the show.

"The platform may be intense, the music and media aggressive, but the heart of the night is to lead the audience into a better understanding of who Jesus Christ is and what he did on the cross," says Executive Pastor Coy Trammel.

Although the edgy format and use of technology typically draws a younger generation, Skull Church is for everyone.

"Skull Church isn't your grandmother's church, but she's welcome too," says Lusko.

Doors open at 6:30 p.m. with the evening kicking off at 7:00 p.m. both nights. Skull Church Missoula is a free event specifically for a generation that does not know God, isn't necessarily "into" church, and desperately needs Jesus. The primary focus of the night will be to bring a culturally applicable, explicit gospel message.

"We are humbled by the response to Skull Church but we are not identified by how many are inside the church, but instead by how many are outside," states Lusko. "Our vision is to see those stranded in sin find life and liberty in Jesus Christ.”

For those who can't make it, Skull Church Missoula will be broadcast online through a high definition webcast at www.skullchurch.com – and streamed live on Fresh Life Radio at www.freshliferadio.com . For more information about Skull Church, call Fresh Life Church at 406.257.3339.
