

Professional Community Management of California, Inc. Signs Park Paseo

LAKE FOREST, Calif., Sept. 12, 2011 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Professional Community Management of California, Inc. (PCM), one of the nation's largest managers of common-interest residential developments, will manage Park Paseo in Irvine, CA. With 625 single-family homes and nine acres of greenbelt space and walking paths, it is one of the largest homeowner associations in the city.

"PCM has nearly 40 years experience in managing large-scale master planned developments," said Donny Disbro, chief executive officer of PCM. "Our award-winning community managers and staff are leaders in our industry and take great pride in providing services to our clients that provide an excellent lifestyle and value."

The 30-year old community selected PCM because of its expertise in improving and beautifying communities, as well as the use of technology to manage and communicate projects with residents. PCM also plans to support and underwrite community and recreational events to create greater cohesion among neighbors.

"We were impressed by PCM's experience in major capital renovations and maintenance as well as supporting community activities and involvement," said Tanja Fournier, president of the homeowner association board at Park Paseo. "We are very excited about teaming up with PCM for many years to come."

As a community management company, PCM serves as an agent to the association's board of directors providing budget guidance, communicating with the board of directors and the residents. PCM also will manage projects of interest to Park Paseo and oversee vendors for landscaping and other services.
