

U.S. Department of Homeland Security awards iFOS contract to provide Acquisition Support Services

WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 4, 2011 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Intelligent Fiscal Optimal Solutions (iFOS) announced today that the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has awarded a contract to provide acquisition support services to the Office of Procurement Operations (OPO), Department of Operations Acquisition Division. Through the awarded contract, iFOS will provide OPO with document management, technology enhancement and acquisition support services.

These services will be part of the agency broader Acquisition Roadmap (ARM) objective to unify acquisition processes, improve the knowledge management structure and implement business practices into a single mission support model. The project will also serve to enhance the acquisition knowledge management system to provide staff with a productivity tool in completing tasks related from acquisition planning to contract close out activities.

“iFOS is proud to be selected for this opportunity and is eager to develop and implement a user-friendly workflow model that transforms informal business activities into structured, regulated and audited processes for acquisition management at the DHS,” commented Tawanda M. Smith, President & CEO, iFOS, LLC.
