

InnoVergent Honored by Intacct for Sales Success and Excellent Customer Service

ALPHARETTA, Ga., Oct. 11, 2011 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – InnoVergent (www.innovergent.com), a technology consultancy firm and reseller of cloud computing accounting software, was recognized as a 2011 President's Club member by Intacct (us.intacct.com), a leader in cloud financial management and accounting software. Membership in the Intacct President's Club is based on sales success and client service.

"As one of six business partners selected by Intacct, I was honored to be among this elite group," said InnoVergent Founder Paul Cammisa. "One of the reasons Intacct chose us to receive this honor is excellent customer service. Our entire organization works to meet and exceed expectations of our customers every time, so we're very happy our efforts have been recognized."

"InnoVergent is a long-time member of the Intacct business partner community," said Taylor Macdonald, vice president of Channels for Intacct. "InnoVergent has repeatedly assisted customers implementing Intacct, providing integration between Intacct and other business-critical solutions, and ensuring rapid deployment of the solutions so that businesses can quickly benefit from Intacct."

"We are driven by a mission statement that designates doing the right thing for our clients," said Cammisa. "We practice an extreme customer service focus; we strive to create a rapid, positive impact on our customers' operations; serve as a trusted business advisor to our clients; and to always strive for delivery excellence."

InnoVergent specializes in cloud-based solutions for start-ups, newly funded, and professional services organizations throughout the United States and Canada.
