

Rare Silver Coin to Sell for $97,500

AUSTIN, Texas, Dec. 8, 2011 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – The U.S. Gold Bureau, a leading distributor of silver coins and silver bullion, today announced the availability of the 1895 Morgan Dollar Proof 65 Cameo Silver Coin, also known as the “King of the Morgan Dollars.” With 880 minted and only 20 ever graded in proof 65 condition by NGC, this coin is very rare and unique for its class.

“This is an amazing opportunity for all savvy collectors and investors of silver coins,” said Josh Hinsdale, director of the firm’s communications office. “The 1895 Morgan Dollar Proof represents the chance to buy silver and own a very rare and valuable piece of history dating back to the late 1800s.”

Morgan dollars were issued annually from 1878 to 1904 and then again in 1921. They show a close-up head of Liberty facing left. She wears a headband inscribed Lady Liberty. In her hair are cotton, corn, wheat, and tobacco. She wears a modified “Phrygian” cap and is surrounded with the motto E PLURIBUS UNUM, thirteen stars (seven left and six right), and the date.

The reverse shows an eagle with wings raised looking left. In its talons are arrows and olive branch, symbols of preparedness and peace. A wreath is below, and the motto IN GOD WE TRUST is above. Along with the eagle’s wing tips, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA and ONE DOLLAR, separated by stars, circumscribe the design.

Acquisition of this silver coin includes a complimentary “Morgan Dollar Discovery Tour Travel Package,” including a round-trip airfare to San Francisco, luxury hotel accommodations, a VIP tour of the San Francisco Mint and other exclusive features that collectors will find intriguing. Discerning investors and coin collectors may inquire about this rare silver coin at www.usgoldbureau.com or by calling (800) 775-3504.
