

Gogiro Internet Group Announces New Office Location in Phoenix East Valley

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 30, 2011 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – The Gogiro Internet Group announced this week the opening of a new regional office in the Phoenix area. “The Gogiro Phoenix East office will introduce Gogiro products to small businesses in the East Valley and provide local support,” says Connie Grennan, Phoenix East co-owner. “We are very excited about this opportunity.”

Gogiro Internet services include: professional website design; the latest internet marketing tools; and the Gogiro cloud platform including Google Apps integration.

“There’s a real need for small businesses to have access to affordable website development and online marketing services,” adds Grennan. “And, once up and running, they need a local office to help them manage it all. We help them to get set up online, integrate tools and get results.”

Brad May, co-owner, is working alongside Grennan to ensure that they deliver top-notch services to the region’s residents. Grennan and May are both long-time valley residents and understand the area’s demographics and business needs.

Gogiro founder, Mike Dahlstedt, says that, “Gogiro is extremely happy to provide personalized service and support to small businesses in the Phoenix market through such a great ownership team. We are excited to help local Phoenix businesses thrive alongside the millions of small businesses already on the cloud.”
