

EPIC Programs Group Enhances Pizza Restaurant and Delivery Operators Insurance Program

SAN RAMON, Calif., Jan. 18, 2012 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – EPIC Programs Group, a managing underwriter and program administrator providing leading-edge risk management and insurance solutions nationally, announced that they have expanded the menu of coverage available in their newest program for Pizza Restaurants and Delivery Operators. Dubbed “SLICE” (safety, loss control, insurance, coverage, expertise), the program now includes customized Commercial Excess Liability Coverage designed specifically for Pizza Delivery Operators.

The coverage is written by an AM Best A-rated class XV insurance company and is admitted in all states. Limits of coverage can range from $1 million to $10 million.

Unique to SLICE, excess coverage includes both automobile liability (including non-owned and hired auto coverage) and liquor liability coverage.

Additional value added coverage for restaurants includes:

- * Food borne illness coverage
- * Pesticide, herbicide and fungicide exposures
- * Crisis response (with no deductible)
- * $250,000 crisis management cost
- * $50,000 for public relations expense.

“Agents and brokers who work extensively in the pizza business have enthusiastically embraced SLICE,” said Seth Madnick, managing principal of EPIC Programs Group. “The program’s unique excess liability coverage will add significantly to the benefits and value they are able to deliver to their clients.”
